FROM MANILA.

Journalism in the Philippines.

Hon. W. L. McJannet presented us Saturday morning with a copy of The Manila Freedom, which was sent to him recently by J. F. Trask, a friend of his now in government employ in that city. The paper is dated Saturday, August 4, 1900, from Manila, Island of Luzon, and is number 7 of Vol. V. It is twelve pages of five columns each and while made up in American style it has many peculiarities some of which we will mention. Most of the body type is old and of very antique pattern, just such a letter as one would find in books printed one hundred to two hundred years ago.

The Freedom is published every morning by Geo. H. Fuller and Fred L. Dorr, assisted by Will Crozier, city editor and the subscription price is ten dollars a year gold or twenty dollars Mexican money. The Philippines cannot understand why they should not charge a commission of two cents on the dollar in American gold in exchange, and this has called forth quite an argument from the Freedom. However, that has been changed, although the Philippines didn't like it.

An editorial on Party Slogans places The Freedom in the rank of republican papers. The paper contains liberal extracts from well-known American dailies, and the American publisher also comes in for his share of space. All the addresses of the different firms advertising their wares in The Freedom, from the department store to the hotel, or from the theater to the wine shop, are in Spanish—Escuela, or Plaza Gotti, or Santa Mesa.

In the market quotations we find hens and chickens quoted at 50c to 90c each, eggs 40c per dozen. Irish and sweet potatoes 5c lb. Other prices proportionate with ours.

Saloon advertisements are quite plentiful and in "setting" are certainly peculiar almost every known combination of type and border being used. They remind us of a specimen of Mexican composition that we have had the pleasure of seeing. Perhaps the civilization embodied under the name saloon was that desired by the army officer whose return to civilization is chronicled in a local paragraph.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union, however, are endeavoring to stem the tide of drinking and drunkenness which the many saloon advertisements would suggest, and in addition to other matter print the pledge of abstinence in space given them by the Freedom.

The Independent Order of Red Men has a tribe there which claims to have passed the century mark, and a lodge of Odd Fellows is now being instituted. The Twentieth Infantry Band announces a fine program for a concert on the Luneta.

The paper is well filled with military news, camp life and stories. The navy is also well represented in the lists of arrivals and departures of steamers and sailing vessels.

Coming from the antipodes The Freedom is an object of great interest and the News force in examining it found much to interest and amuse.

O-I-C

When a preparation has an advertising reputation that is world-wide, it means that preparation is meritorious. If you go into a store to buy an article that has achieved universal popularity like Cascarets Candy Cathartic for example, you feel it has the endorsement of the world. The judgment of the people is infallible because it is impersonal. The retailer who wants to sell you "something else" in place of the article you ask for, has an axe to grind. Don't it stand to reason? He's trying to sell something that is not what is represented to be. Why? Because he expects to derive an extra profit out of your credulity. Are you easy? Don't you see through his little game? The man who will try and sell you a substitute for Cascarets is an fraud. Beware of him. He is trying to steal the honestly earned benefits of a reputation which another business man has paid for, and if his conscience will allow him to go so far, he will go farther. If he cheats his customer in one way, he will in another and it is not safe to business with him. Remember Cascarets is never sold in bulk but in metal boxes with the longtailed "C" on every box, and each tablet marked C. C. C.

Box Supper.

Saturday night the box supper for the benefit of Mrs. B. Owen, who lately suffered the loss of her home and goods by fire, was given at the school house. There was a ready sale of boxes, but voting on a cake was the main feature. It was voted to Miss Nettie Walden, of Mikeville, now visiting here. The proceeds of the evening amounted to over $31.00.

Best for the Bowels.

No matter what ails you, headache to a cancer, you will never get well until your bowels are put right. CASCARETS help nature, cure you without a gripe or pain, produce easy natural movements, costs you just 10 cents to start getting your health back. CASCARETS Candy Cathartic, the genuine, put up in metal boxes, every tablet has C. C. C. stamped on it. Beware of imitations.

Light Draying.

Having bought a horse and wagon we are prepared to do light draying in and about Sequachee and vicinity, and promise prompt attendance. COLDWELL & CHAUDOIN, Sequachee, Tenn.
